MR. TIMOTHY,
YOUR Paper, to which I have been a subscriber near fourteen years, is of late become very unentertaining, in my opinion, particularly your last, which is crammed with letters no way calculated to promote either public good, or private entertainment. One of these, an anonymous one, appears to me to be a mixture of invective against the people of this country in general, and a dirty parcel of personal slander.

As I have no intention of becoming the champion of any man, I shall not notice the scurrilous manner in which the author of this letter treats the author of a quondam one: But I cannot help taking the liberty of animadverting a little, on some other parts of this performance. At the time that he tells us, with a very serious air, He is no politician (which may be easily believed, without an oath) he is at infinite pains, to shew his skill in the mysterious science. And when he informs us, he has had the honour of both dining and supping, at many gentlemen's tables here, He with the same breath, to shew his great goodness of heart, and gratitude for civilities received, tells you, with as sarcastical an air, as he is capable, "The Ladies, to shew their "obedience to their lords and masters, withdraw as soon as the "table-cloth is removed." He might have added, perhaps with equal truth, that the reason of their withdrawing so soon was, to save their blushes.

He next goes on with a kind of address to the Ladies, in which I dare prophecy, he will prove as unsuccessful, as he has already done, in some others made to that beautiful sex. To conclude his elaborate performance, and to render it truly complete, he signs pro Libertate et Lege. For God's sake, what kind of liberty, can any man imagine this gentleman means to support?
but the liberty of saying, with impunity, disagreeable things:
And if so, no wonder he deems every other species of it licen-tiousness.

O tempora! O mores!

AN ACADEMY,

WILL be opened (as soon as a CLASS of SIX YOUNG GENTLEMEN can be formed) for the Instruction of YOUTH in the ENGLISH LANGUAGE, which they will be taught to write grammatically, as well as to read and speak properly; and at the same Time be introduced to an Acquaintance with the best modern as well as ancient Authors. They will likewise be initiated in the first Principles of ARITHMETIC, GEOMETRY, GEOGRAPHY, HISTORY, and MORAL PHILOSOPHY.

The Utility of such an Undertaking as this, is too obvious to need any Recommendation. For, however necessary the Acquisition of the Latin and Greek Tongues may be, for THOSE, who are to be bred up in one or other of the learned Professions; yet surely it can be of little Consequence to such as are to spend their Days in rural, mercantile, or mechanical Employments, to pass away six or seven years in the study of the DEAD LANGUAGES. Does the Knowledge of Words, which is indeed the principal Part of a School Education, contribute to make them more useful Members of civil Society? Or, does even a critical Acquaintance with the best classical Writers enable them to discharge with more Propriety, those Relations in which they stand to their Fellow-Creatures? Language is certainly only to be considered as the Means, Knowledge is its End. Now if this End can be obtained, and the Mind can be stored with a Set of useful Ideas, without the dry and tedious Process of learning the Latin and Greek Languages, it may not be altogether an useless Attempt.

Such an Attempt as this, the Subscriber humbly presumes to make; and if he shall be so happy as to meet with Encouragement in THIS PROVINCE, he will endeavour to merit it in the best Manner he can; and at the same Time shall consider himself as highly obliged.

Any Person desirous of being acquainted with the CONDITIONS, or perusing the PLAN OF EDUCATION, may apply to GEORGE SAKBY, Esq; the Reverend Mr. CHARLES MARTYN, or to the Subscriber at Captain Maffey's, in Old Church-street.

WILLIAM WALTON.

Boston, April 14, 1769.

THE Honourable the Commissioners of

His Majesty's Customs, observing that ships and vessels frequently incur forfeitures, and their owners become subject to heavy penalties, thro' the misconduct or negligence of the masters and seamen; and particularly by the masters not making true reports of their cargoes, which they sometimes pretend they are not able to do, from the manner that they take in their loading at foreign ports: And at other times they pretend, that the seamen take on board private ventures, and secret the same from their knowledge, so as to be landed clandestinely upon their arrival, without payment of duty.

And several ships and vessels, seized for the commission of offences of this kind, having been released in consequence of such representations from the owners. The Commissioners think it necessary to advertise, for the information of all persons whom it may concern, That upon the detection and discovery of any such offences, in future, the same will be prosecuted as the law directs; so that it behoves the owners to suppress the custom of suffering the seamen to take in private ventures; and also to admonish the masters to be punctual in taking an account of their cargoes, and to pay a strict regard to their oaths in reporting the same, as well as the ports of their first arrival, as the ports of entry in NORTH-AMERICA.

Herst-Sheet, July 10, 1769.

PHILIP SMITH.

The Proceedings of the late Representatives of the people of VIRGINIA, after the House of Burgesses was dissolved.

WEDNESDAY, May 17.

THE late representatives of the people then judging it necessary that some measures should be taken, in their distressed situation, for preserving the true and essential interests of the colony, resolved upon a meeting for that very salutary purpose, and therefore immediately, with the greatest order and decorum, repaired to the house of Mr. Anthony Hay in this city, where being assembled, it was first proposed, for the more decent and regular discussion of such matters as might be taken into consideration, that a moderator should be appointed, and, on the question being put, Peyton Randolph, Esq; late speaker of the house of Burgesses, was unanimously elected.

The true state of the colony being then opened and fully explained, and it being proposed that a regular association should be formed, a committee was appointed to prepare the necessary and most proper regulations, for that purpose, and they were ordered to make their report to the general meeting the next day at ten o'clock.

THURSDAY, May 18.

AT a further meeting according to adjournment, the committee appointed yesterday, made their report, which being read, seriously considered, and approved, was signed by a great number of the principal gentlemen of the colony then present, and is as follows:

WE his Majesty's most dutiful subjects, the late representatives of all the freeholders of the colony of Virginia, avowing our inviolable and unshaken fidelity and loyalty to our most gracious Sovereign, our affection for all our fellow subjects of Great-Britain; protesting against every act or thing, which may have the most distant tendency to interrupt, or any wise disturb his Majesty's peace, and the good order of his government in this colony, which we are resolved, at the risk of our lives and fortunes, to maintain and defend; but, at the same time, being deeply affected with the grievances and distresses, with which his Majesty's American subjects are oppressed, and dreading the evils which threaten the ruin of ourselves and our posterity, by reducing us from a free and happy people to a wretched and miserable state of slavery; and having taken into our most serious consideration the present state of the trade of this colony, and of the American commerce in general, observe with anxiety, that the debt due to Great-Britain for goods imported from thence is very great, and that means of paying this debt, in the present situation of affairs, are likely to become more and more precarious; that the difficulties, under which we now labour, are owing to the restrictions, prohibitions, and ill-advised regulations, in several late acts of parliament of Great-Britain, in particular, that the late unconstitutional act, imposing duties on Tea, Paper, Glass, &c. for the sole purpose of raising a revenue in America, is injurious to property, and destructive to liberty, hath a necessary tendency to prevent the payment of the debt due from this colony to Great-Britain, and is, of consequence, ruinous to trade; that, notwithstanding the many earnest applications already made, there is little reason to expect a redress of those grievances; therefore, in justice to ourselves and our posterity, as well as to the traders of Great-Britain concerned in the American commerce, we, the subscribers, have voluntarily and unanimously entered into the following resolutions, in hopes that our example will induce the good people of this colony to be frugal in the use and consumption of British manufactures, and that the merchants and manufacturers of Great-Britain may, from motives of interest, friendship, and justice, be engaged to exert themselves to obtain for us a redress of those grievances, under which the trade and inhabitants of America at present labour: We do therefore most earnestly recommend this our association to the serious attention of all gentlemen, merchants, traders, and other inhabitants of this colony, in hopes, that they will very readily and cordially accede thereto.

First, It is UNANIMOUSLY agreed on and resolved this 18th day of May, 1769, that the subscribers, as well as by their own example, as all other legal ways and means in their power, will promote and encourage industry and frugality, and discourage all manner of luxury and extravagance.

Secondly, That they will not at any time hereafter, directly or indirectly import, or cause to be imported, any manner of goods, merchandise, or manufactures, which are, or shall hereafter be taxed by act of parliament, for the purpose of raising a revenue in America (except paper, not exceeding eight shillings sterling per ream, and except such articles only, as orders have been already sent for) nor purchase any such after the first day of September next, of any person whatsoever, but that they will always consider such taxation, in every respect, as an absolute prohibition, and in all future orders, direct their correspondents to ship them no goods whatever, taxed as aforesaid, except as is above excepted.

Thirdly, That the subscribers will not hereafter, directly or indirectly, import or cause to be imported from Great-Britain, or any part of Europe (except such articles of the produce or manufacture of Ireland as may be immediately and legally brought from thence, and except also all such goods as orders have been already sent for) any of the goods herein after enumerated, viz. spirits, wine, cyder, perry, beer, ale, malt; barley, pease, beef, pork, fish, butter, cheese, tallow, candles, oil, fruit, sugar, pickles, confectionary, pewter, hoes, axes, watches, clocks, tables, chairs, looking glasses, carriages, joiners and cabinet work of all sorts, upholstery of all sorts, trinkets and jewellery, plate and gold, and silversmith's work of all sorts, ribbons and millinery of all sorts, lace of all sorts, India goods of all sorts, except spices, silks of all sorts, except sewing silk, cambric, lawn, muslin, gauze, except bolting cloths, callico or cotton stuffs of more than two shillings per yard, lincens of more than two shillings per yard, woollens, worsted stuffs of all sorts of more than one shilling and six pence per yard, broad cloths of all kinds at more than eight shillings per yard, narrow cloths of all kinds at more than three shillings per yard, hats, stockings, (plaid and Irish hose excepted) shoes and boots, saddles, and all manufactures of leather and skins of all kinds, until the late acts of parliament imposing duties on tea, paper, glass, &c. for the purpose of raising a revenue in America, are repealed, and that they will not, after the first of September next, purchase any of the above enumerated goods of any person whatsoever, unless the above mentioned acts of parliament are repealed.

Fourthly, That in all orders, which any of the subscribers may hereafter send to Great-Britain, they shall, and will expressly direct their correspondents not to ship them any of the before enumerated goods, until the before mentioned acts of parliament are repealed; and if any goods are shipped to them contrary to the tenor of this agreement, they will refuse to take the same, or make themselves chargeable therewith.

Fifthly, That they will not import any slaves, or purchase any imported, after the first day of November next, until the said acts of parliament are repealed.

Sixthly, That they will not import any wines of any kind whatever, or purchase the same from any person whatever, after the first day of September next, except such wines as are already ordered, until the acts of parliament imposing duties thereon are repealed.

Seventhly, For the better preservation of the breed of sheep, that they will not kill, or suffer to be killed, any lambs, that will be yearned before the first day of May, in any year, nor dispose of such to any butcher or other person, whom they may have reason to suspect, intends to kill the same.

Eighthly, and lastly, That these resolves shall be binding on all and each of the subscribers, who do hereby each and every person for himself, upon his word and honour, agree that he will strictly and firmly adhere to and abide by every article in this agreement, from the time of his signing the same, for and during the continuance of the before mentioned acts of parliament, or until a general meeting of the subscribers, after one month's public notice, shall determine otherwise, the second article of this agreement still and for ever continuing in full power and force.

The business being finished, the following toasts were drank, and the gentlemen retired.---The King.---The Queen and royal Family.---His Excellency Lord Botetourt, and prosperity to Virginia.---A speedy and lasting Union between Great-Britain and her colonies.---The constitutional British liberty in America, and all true patriots the supporters thereof.---Duke of Richmond.---Earl of Shelburne.---Col. Barre.---The late Speaker.---The Treasurer of the colony.---The Farmer and Monitor.

Of NORTHWARD Flour.		Of CAROLINA Flour.
lb. oz. dwt		lb. oz. dwt
White,	1 13 0	White,	2 11 0
Wheaten,	2 11 8	Wheaten,	4 0 8

Of which all Bakers of Bread are required to take due notice. BENJAMIN SIMONS, Com. Gen.

THE SUBSCRIBER,

Having divided that part of his land in town situated to the westward of his house, into

L O T S,

WILL AGREE FOR AND DISPOSE OF some of the said LOTS:

Most of them have a front on two streets, many on three; are full six feet higher in situation, by a level, than the land in the middle of Broad-street; have a fine prospect; and no WATER in the whole extent of St. Philip's parish PREFERABLE to what may be had there:

He hath framed a WHARF upon the river, to the eastward, of about 840 feet in length from south to north, where any ship that can come over the Bar may lie and load, and where any of the produce of the province may be landed, without a moment's loss of time, at either high or low water;

And hath begun to dig a DOCK, intended to be full 20 feet wide at least, and to have six feet water at high tide, contiguous to a LONG WHARF, also intended to be made, at the north side of his land, and which he makes no doubt of finishing this year; so that the purchasers of his Lots, may have their wood and other heavy articles conveyed to their doors, at as little expense as in any part of Charles-Town.

Such persons as will promise to improve them within a year, or eighteen months, from the date hereof, may have their timber, bricks, lime and other materials for building on said Lots, landed at either of his wharves, within the above-mentioned time, FREE OF CHARGE.

He takes this private method of disposing of his Lots, rather than by public sale, in order to avoid (if possible) being pestered with dram-shops, and other nuisances, that may make the neighbourhood disagreeable.

The Plat of the said Lots may be seen at Mr. WILLIAM GIBBS's on the BAY, Mr. RICHARD MUNCRIEFF's in QUEEN-STREET, Mr. ANDREW RUTLEDGE's in BROAD-STREET, at TIMOTHY's Printing-Office, and with June 3d, 1769. CHRISTOPHER GADSDEN.

ALL persons who have any demands, either by bond, note, or book debt, on the subscriber, are desired to bring in their accounts to JOHN KESSON, in King-street, by the last day of this month, as there is an absolute necessity for settling his affairs. JAMES ANDREWS.

St. Paul's Parish, July 5, 1769.

MR. John Smith, overseer at Stono, brought before me a strayed forrel GELDING, between 13 and 14 hands high, about 12 years old, branded with something resembling a F joined in one, has a blaze down his face, with saddle spots, and some white spots on his rump, he appears to be a draught horse by the galls on his breast and shoulders. The owner must prove his or her property before ANDREW LEITCH, J. P.

Goose-Creek, July 11, 1769.

I AM informed of a black natural pacing GELDING, thirteen hands and an half high, about 10 years old, branded on the mounting buttock with an obscure brand, and on the off buttock S reversed, he is galled on the breast with drawing. The owner must prove his property before HENRY SMITH.

THOMAS L. SMITH,

EARNESTLY entreats those indebted to him by bond, note, or book-account, to make payment to Mr. JOHN LOGAN, who has directions to put every debt in suit without distinction, that may remain unpaid the 1st of September next.

The long indulgence already granted, he fears, has made his friends unmindful of him, the intention therefore of this advertisement is, to prevent their being put to the charges that will accrue should they neglect what he so reasonably requires.

N. B. A pair of very good bay GELDINGS, that match well, and have been used to a post-chaise and phaeton, to be sold. Enquire of Mr. LOGAN. 6 w.
